

The nation's leading university experts, all in one place.

Elite Medical Experts

Elite Medical Experts is a physician-run consulting firm specializing in complex litigation. We work closely with clients to develop strategic and tactical insight, and for cases needing experts we identify, screen, and hand select leading university specialists in every medical and surgical field. Each expert is a Professor of Medicine or Surgery at a top-tier medical center with full-time clinical practice, Board-Certification, and spotless credentials. Each expert is researched and selected based on the unique preferences of the client and requirements of the case. Elite also maintains in-house physicians and nurses to provide high-level consultation on every call, and we can access experts from private practice and every healthcare field as well. With over 10,000 engagements in all 50 states and internationally, Elite solves challenges so that our clients win.
