

Alissa Sherry, Ph.D., ABPP

Board Certified Forensic Psychologist

asherry@munevarsherry.com

512.695.9878

www.munevarsherry.com

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Psychological Injury related to

Civil Rights Violations
Police Brutality in communities of color
Discrimination/Harassment (sex, race, age, etc)
Cruel and Inhumane treatment while imprisoned
Americans with Disabilities Act
Wrongful Termination
Professional liability and medical malpractice

Expert Scientific Testimony

Daubert Challenges
Child Suggestibility/Brainwashing
Police Interrogation Tactics
Cognitive Bias and Discrimination
Eyewitness/Memory/False Allegations
Parental Alienation
Mental Health Ethics and Malpractice

Comprehensive Forensic Psychological or Neuropsychological Evaluations

Criminal Competencies
Self-Defense
Posttraumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD)
Personality Disorders

Intellectual or Developmental Disability
Criminal Mitigation
Brain injury or other cognitive impairments
Testamentary Capacity/Undue Influence

Social Scientist Expert Assistance with

Sexual or Racial Harassment Investigations; Witness Interviewing
Juror/Jury Interviews, questionnaires; Statistically driven (big data) jury selection
Criminal/Civil Case Preparation/Consultation in cases with extensive mental health or medical testimony
Research/statistical analysis of case related questions (e.g., venue change, jury selection, case theory evaluation; large and small data analysis)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2005-present	Forensic Psychologist	Munevar Sherry, PLLC
2002-2017	Tenured University Professor, published scholar	University of Texas at Austin

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

2001-2002	Clinical/Research Postdoctoral Fellow	Emory University School of Medicine
2001	Ph.D. Psychology	University of Southern Mississippi
2000-2001	Internship in Counseling and Testing	University of Oregon
1996	M.A. Clinical/Experimental Psychology	Austin Peay State University
1995-1996	Internship in Psychological Assessment Internship in Child Therapy	Vanderbilt University Medical Center Crockett Academy, State Inpatient Hospital for Children
1991	B.A. Psychology	Auburn University

Licensed in Texas, Florida, Michigan, APIT (telepsychology), license eligible in other states by request*