

The Kincaid Wolstein vocational services team provides comprehensive vocational evaluation services for litigation including vocational rehabilitation, employability assessments, life care planning, and deposition / trial testimony.

Services

- Earning Capacity Analysis
- Employability Assessments
- Vocational Testing and Evaluation
- Loss of Household Services
- Vocational Rehabilitation
- Labor Market Research
- Transferable Skills Analysis
- Medical Cost Projections
- Assistive Technology Evaluation
- Life Care Planning

Types of Cases

- Personal Injury - Motor Vehicle, Construction, and Industrial
- Wrongful Death
- Malpractice, Medical & Hospital
- Workers' Compensation
- Premises Liability
- Matrimonial / Divorce
- Social Security Disability

Dan Wolstein, Ph.D., CRC, CLCP, IPEC, ABVE/D, LRC, FVE, CVE

Dr. Wolstein is currently President of the American Board of Vocational Experts (ABVE) and a member of the International Association of Rehabilitation Counselors. An author and frequent speaker, his research has been published in the Journal of Forensic Vocational Analysis and presented for various groups including the National Organization of Social Security Claimant Representatives. Dr. Wolstein completed his doctoral studies in rehabilitation counseling and administration at East Carolina University and his Master of Science in rehabilitation counseling from Rutgers University (formerly the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey). He holds the following licenses and certifications:

- Certified Rehabilitation Counselor (CRC)
- Certified Life Care Planner (CLCP)
- International Psychometric Evaluation Certification (IPEC)
- Diplomate of the American Board of Vocational Experts (ABVE/D)
- Licensed Rehabilitation Counselor (LRC 37RT00580100)
- Forensic Vocational Expert (FVE)
- Certified Vocational Evaluator (CVE)

Dr. Dan Wolstein, Dr. Matthew Putts, and Christopher Skerritt provide services to plaintiff and defense counsel nationwide, conducting vocational evaluations both in-person and by video conference.